PRESENTS
SECRET TUNNELS AND THE LINDSAY ARSENAL

The Victoria County Historical Society is delighted to invite the public to the latest in its series of free lectures, on the evening of Wednesday, September 28, 2011, when the topic covers a little-known chapter of Lindsay's history.

Well-known raconteur and Lindsay resident Rick Harding will be on hand to unveil details of the hidden wartime measures surrounding the Lindsay Arsenal and the clandestine tunnels that once served it.

The evening will commence at 7:30pm, Wednesday, September 28, 2011, in the Skylight Room of the Lindsay Inn, located at 354 Lindsay Street South in Lindsay. Tom or Debbie Mohr may be contacted at 320-9979 for further information.

The Historical Society offers this lively programme of general interest subjects with heritage appeal on a quarterly basis and all are welcome to attend. Admission is free and light refreshments will be available. This Speakers Series is conducted with the kind assistance of the City of Kawartha Lakes.
